Note from the President

The Matzoh crumbs are gone and the flowers are coming up. Hooray!!!! We made it to Spring!!!!

Now we can look forward to Shavuot and blintzes. If this issue is delayed, the Shabbaton has happened.

And now, no weather excuses to Folk dance, Mah Jongg or Canasta. These ongoing activities are always looking for more participants. I'm expecting one day there might be a Men's Mah Jongg game. The committees that run our various activities are open to suggestions. Leave a note in my mailbox and I'll get it to the right person.

Happy Mother's Day!

Evelyn

MESSAGE FROM MEN'S CLUB PRESIDENT

IRVING EPSTEIN

SHALOM,

Well, Passover ended on Shabbat, April 7th, with Yizkor to remember our dear departed. We should never forget what our common sense and Jewish learnings have taught us.

The Men's Club delivered the Yom HaShoah yellow candles to all synagogue members. Thank you to everyone who helped deliver the candles and for your generous donations. If you have forgotten to send in your donation, it's not too late. Please send your check, payable to Men's Club SBJC, to SBJC Office.

On Friday, April 13th, the women of Baldwin Daliya Hadassah conducted the entire Friday night service with the assistance of Michael Eisman. We had a wonderful oneg afterwards. A great job was done.

On Saturday, April 14th, after services, we had a fantastic luncheon in honor of Eddie Volkmann's 90th birthday. In addition, we acknowledged the birthdays and anniversaries of other members. It was wonderful to have so many of us be together and enjoy a simcha. We should do this more often.

April 12th was Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day. On Sunday evening we had a wonderful speaker, Mrs. Donna Rosenblum, from the Holocaust Memorial Tolerance Center. She told us about her life and the work she does teaching about the holocaust in colleges all over the country so that we should never forget. She was great and very learned.

On April 18th we remembered Yom HaZikaron, Israel's Memorial Day.

Thursday, April 19th, marked Israel's Independence Day.

It's great that the snowbirds are here to add to the Friday and Saturday services.

Until next time, be mentally, physically and financially healthy.

Notes From Sisterhood

Betty Arzt, Sheila Goldsmith

Politeness! Courteousness! Respectfulness!

It makes us feel good when someone remembers these niceties. Simple acts of kindness are not small ones. Kindness implies showing courtesy for family, friends, acquaintances and, yes, strangers. Kindness suggests concern at home, in the workplace, in the supermarket, even in the parking lot. When a stranger stands holding the door open for us rather than allowing the door to shut as we need to pass, we smile and express thanks. If someone sitting at a table pulls up a chair for us, we feel welcome. When the person with whom we engage in conversation is a good listener, we feel included.

Each day we meet people who are polite, courteous, and respectful. These meetings can "change our day." A warm smile or friendly "hello" will "make the day" for the recipient as well as the giver. Friends and acquaintances who are thoughtful are the people we like to spend time with. "They" say: "kindness is contagious." When a pebble is thrown into a body of water, it creates ripples, radiating outward. So it is with compassion and thoughtfulness. We all feel good when people around us create that atmosphere.

Looking ahead:

May 4,5: Shabbaton

May 13: Mothers' Day. Enjoy the day with family and friends. Visit the gift shop for last minute gift ideas.

May 19: Erev Shavuot. We invite you to a dairy seudah and study session prior to the service. The tradition on Erev Shavuot is to study Torah. It is a custom to eat dairy foods during the holiday. We request $10.00 to confirm your reservation for the seudah.

May 20: Shavuot Day 1. Kiddush will follow service.

May 21: Shavuot Day 2. The Scroll of Ruth will be read. Yizkor will be part of the service. Kiddush will follow the service.

June 10: Rosh Hodesh study group meets after the minyan. We continue to explore the Talmud.

The next book club selection is: The Eternal Life, by Dara Horn. Please watch for the date and time of the meeting.

Please be reminded that:

Canasta players meet weekly, on Wednesdays, at 1:00.

Mah Jongg players meet weekly, on Thursday evenings, at 6:30.

Torah Fund Cards, for all occasions, are available for purchase.

Your gift shop is here to serve your needs.

Highlighting The Story of Ruth

The Book of Ruth is read on Shavuot. Ruth is a woman of daring, resilience, and insight. She is a risk taker.

We remember that Ruth insists on accompanying her mother in law, Naomi, when she is ready to return to Bethlehem. Ruth's words: "Wherever you go, I will go. Where you stay, I will stay. Your people shall be my people, and your G-d my G-d," are well recognized. The story of Ruth is a tale of bonding, commitment, and struggle for survival.

We will be examining this text in shul on Monday morning, May 21, as part of our celebration of Shavuot. We look forward to observing the holiday together.

SHAVUOT

Shavuot is the second of the three pilgrimage festivals, commemorating the first [wheat] harvest (Exodus 34:22) and the conclusion of the 50-day counting of the omer. Like Pesach and Sukkot, Shavuot has an additional historical component. But unlike the other two that are described clearly in the Bible, Shavuot's historical connection was devised later by the rabbis who claimed that the ten commandments were given on Shavuot, the 6th of Sivan (B.T. Shabbat 86b-88a). It became known as zeman mattan toratenu (the season of the giving of our Torah).

Its various biblical names reflect its agricultural meaning: Yom HaBikkurim (day of first fruits), Chag HaKatzir (harvest festival), and Chag HaShavuot, designating the seven-week period of the omer (shavuot means weeks).

From the day after you bring the sheaf (omer) of wave offering [the second day of Pesach], you shall count until seven full weeks have elapsed: you shall count 50 days, until the day after the seventh week.

Leviticus 23:15-16

The customs associated with Shavuot are far less demanding than the other pilgrimage festivals. They include the tikkun leil Shavuot – studying Torah throughout the first night until dawn – reading the Book of Ruth, eating dairy foods, and decorating with plants and foliage.

The tradition of all-night study might derive from the midrash that Israel had to be awakened from its deep slumber to receive the revelation:

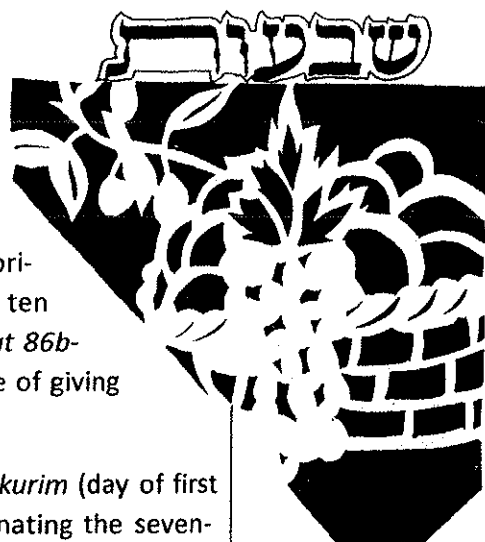

Israel slept all that night, because the sleep of Shavuot is pleasant and the night is short. R. Judah said: Not a flea worried them. God came and found them sleeping, so he began to rouse them with trumpeters, as it says: 'there was thunder and lightning,' and Moses roused Israel and brought them out to meet the supreme King of kings . . . and then God went before them until He reach Mt. Sinai.

Shir HaShirim Rabbah 1.12

There are a number of explanations for why we read the book of Ruth on Shavuot. A rabbinic tradition suggests that King David, whose lineage is traced back to Ruth (Ruth 4:21-22), was born and died on Shavuot (Ruth Rabbah 3:2).

The explanation for why we eat dairy is vague, perhaps deriving from the verse "honey and milk shall be under your tongue" (Song of Songs 4:11) or the suggestion that words of Torah are as pleasant to our ears and hearts as milk and honey are to our tongues (Kol Bo 58). Eating dairy does afford opportunity for culinary derivations from our usual meat-centered meals.

Concerning the Jews - the Essay

CONCERNING THE JEWS ...

The Essay

"If the statistics are right, the Jews constitute but one percent of the human race. It suggests a nebulous dim puff of star dust lost in the blaze of the Milky Way. Properly the Jew ought hardly to be heard of, but he is heard of, has always been heard of. He is as prominent on the planet as any other people, and his commercial importance is extravagantly out of proportion to the smallness of his bulk. His contributions to the world's list of great names in literature, science, art, music, finance, medicine, and abstruse learning are also away out of proportion to the weakness of his numbers. He has made a marvellous fight in the world, in all the ages; and has done it with his hands tied behind him. He could be vain of himself, and be excused for it. The Egyptian, the Babylonian, and the Persian rose, filled the planet with sound and splendor, then faded to dream-stuff and passed away; the Greek and the Roman followed, and made a vast noise, and they are gone; other peoples have sprung up and held their torch high for a time, but it burned out, and they sit in twilight now, or have vanished. The Jew saw them all, beat them all, and is now what he always was, exhibiting no decadence, no infirmities of age, no weakening of his parts, no slowing of his energies, no dulling of his alert and aggressive mind. All things are mortal but the Jew; all other forces pass, but he remains. What is the secret of his immortality?"

What is the counting of the omer and its relationship to Shavuot?

Beginning on the second night of Pesach, we count 50 days until Shavuot. "From the day after you bring the sheaf (omer) of wave offering, you shall keep count until seven full weeks have elapsed: you shall count fifty days until the day after the seventh week." (Leviticus 23:15-16) Hence, the name of the holiday, Shavuot, Weeks.

Aside from its obvious agrarian references, it serves also to tie the themes of Pesach to those of Shavuot. As we perform "sefirat ha'omer," counting of the days, one by one, every night, we realize that the freedom we gained on Pesach has given us the opportunity to seek out and commit to the covenant and law that we celebrate on Shavuot.
